Ms. Shackford will cover factors that make a Suzuki Group class successful:

- General classroom and space logistics
- Artistry Development and concert preparation
- Management of different levels and ages
- Incorporating group class fees into tuition
- Working with other Suzuki teachers

During each Saturday class, there will be two hours of discussion and one hour of a Suzuki violin group class demonstration. Though the student demonstration group class will be only violinists, teachers of all instruments are invited to attend and apply and translate the information they receive to their own instrument.

Violin teachers are encouraged to bring up to and no more than 2 students to participate in the group classes lead by Ms. Shackford. Please bring one pre-twinkle violin student to the September 9 group class and one student who has at minimum completed the twinkles to the September 16 group class. Students will be working on Book 1 repertoire on September 16, so please make sure your student has the Book 1 pieces prepared with the correct notes and bowings, and has all pieces they know from memory. Students who are beyond Book 1 may also participate in the September 16 group class.

The practice parent must be in attendance for the group classes. Please have students arrive at 10am.
